Retreat – June 17 to 19

Mount St. Mary's Seminary
with Fr. Jack Lombardi

Blessed or stressed? Living a Holy Life in today's challenging world is the theme for this retreat. In today's fast paced world how can we lead Christ-centered lives? Discover ways to develop a sacred-sacramental life. Learn ways to foster mindfulness in your daily life. Learn how "activism" can demolish you, families and churches. Do you seek and enjoy holy silence? How much do you decide to stay on "the treadmill" of busyness and how much do you allow the culture to keep "pushing" it? Is simplicity really possible in today's wired, wily world? How can the saints and other holy persons help us lead grace-filled lives? Learn ways of avoiding extremes and embracing moderation. So send up an S.O.S by joining us on this weekend away...Embrace on this leisurely retreat the "Sacredness of Simplicity," and learn how it is possible in today's world. For more information: (301) 678-6339 or officestpeter@verizon.net.

From Barbara . . .

“Do not let your hearts be troubled?” Jesus says this to the disciples (and to us) not to tell them they shouldn’t be concerned, but that they shouldn’t let themselves get caught up in worry. Jesus is on this journey with us. He has taken care of us all along the way and will continue to do so. He has prepared a place for us that is not a place for us to use after we have died but is a place in profound union with him at the present time. Our prayer and faith leads us to him and helps us to recognize this place of union with him at all times. Take time this week to experience the presence of God in your life.

This week is Mother Seton School’s Carnival. If you’re looking to have a good time, please consider attending the carnival and supporting the school.

Next week is Memorial Day; a day for us to remember those who have given their life for the freedoms that we all enjoy. One of those freedoms is the freedom to worship in the faith we choose. There are so many places in our world where people don’t have such freedom. Please don’t take for granted this privilege. And along with privileges come responsibilities. Have you responded to the responsibilities that God is calling you to?

May God continue to bless us all.
